

SUDDEN DEATH.

Of Frederic N. Sewall of Kansas City, Mo.

The news of the death of Frederic N. Sewall in Kansas City, Mo., was received Monday morning by his mother, Mrs. Edward Sewall of this city. Death was the result of an accident which occurred Saturday when Mr. Sewall was thrown from his horse while out ridding.

A dispatch was received Sunday morning announcing that Mr. Sewall had been seriously injured, and that recovery was doubtful. His brother, Samuel S. Sewall of this city, started for Kansas City on the first train Monday morning the dispatch with the sad news of the death of the injured man was received. He died during the night.

The deceased was born in this city, son of the late Edward Sewall. He received an education in the public schools, graduated from the Bath High School in 1882 and was a member of the class of '86 at Yale College. In 1887 he married Miss Ruby Rogers Fisher of this city. For the past 20 years he had been engaged in business in Kansas City. He was at the head of one of the paint and oil houses in that city and was an influential and prominent citizen. He was aged 44 years. Last summer he passed several weeks at his old home in this city, coming east to meet Mrs. Sewall and his daughter on their return from a trip abroad.

Besides his immediate family, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Edward Sewall of this city; five brothers, Oscar T. of New York, Samuel S. and Mark W. of this city, Captain Edward of New York and Frank L. of Highland, Cal., and one sister Mrs. Joseph E. Noyes of Portland.

DODGE-BROWN.

Wedding at Kittery Followed by a Visit to Bath Friends.

Saturday evening at 7:30 at the home of the bride's grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Synnott of Kittery, formerly of this city, occurred the marriage of Miss Ruby P. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dodge of Malden, Mass., and Albert H. Brown of Kittery.

Rev. Edward Hallett Macey of the First Christian Church was the officiating clergyman. Miss Addie Brown, sister of the groom, accompanied the bridal pair. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling dress of brown broadcloth with hat to match and carried bride's roses. After a brief reception they left amidst a shower of confetti and rice for this city, arriving on the midnight. At Brunswick they were met by a party of Bath young people who showered them with confetti and extended best wishes. Upon arriving here the entire party went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Smith, Walker St., where a midnight lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed.

Mrs. Brown is one of Malden's brightest young ladies and is well known in Bath, having been a frequent visitor here. Mr. Brown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Kittery and is engaged in the automobile business in Portsmouth.

While here Mr. and Mrs. Brown will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Smith.
