

Dr. Harry E. Davis At Brilliant Ceremony On Tuesday Evening

Many Out Of Town Guests Attend Nuptials Of Bath Girl To Local Man—Reception Follows Impressive Affair

An impressive wedding ceremony was performed at the Etz Chaim Synagogue last night when Miss Sadye Solovitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Solovitch of Bath, became the bride of Dr. Harry Eugene Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Davis of Atlantic Street.

The corridors leading from the vestry were attractively decorated with ferns and hydrangeas and formed a green archway to the altar. To the soft strains of the wedding march played on the violin, the wedding procession marched down the aisle to the canopy of white satin upholstered with ivory poles wound with blue satin. The bride wore a gown of ivory duchesse satin and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Celia Solovitch of Detroit, Michigan, the maid of honor was attired in a gown of orchid taffeta appliqued with velvet flowers. The best man was Mauric R. Davis, a brother of the groom, and the ushers were David Sivovlos, Louis Bernstein, Edward J. Berman, Harry Schwartz, Sidney Schwartz, and Harry Sivovlos.
