

BIRTH CERTIFICATE OF LEWI BARON BORN IN RADOSZYCE, POLAND IN 1845

(Translation from Polish)

It took place in Radoszyce on the 16th February of 1845 at 3 pm. A local Jewish trader age 19, Rywen Baron came in person accompanied by two Jewish witnesses: Haim Zygbbaum, age 55, a teacher, and Berele Szegir, a shoemaker age 34, both residing in Radoszyce. Rywen Baron presented a male infant born in Radoszyce on the 14th of February of the current year at 7 pm, to his wife Cypra, age 20, nee Chorowich. At the bris ceremony the male infant was named Lewi.

This certificate is given to the presenter and signed in Yiddish by the witnesses:

Rywen Baron, Haim Zygbbaum and Berele Szegir