

DEATH OF SZAYNDLA BARON IN RADOSZYCE ON DECEMBER 29, 1832, DAUGHTER OF MAIER AND PERLA BARON

(Translated from Polish)

It took place in Radoszyce on May 7, 1833 at 6 am. Two Jewish laborers residing in Radoszyce: Zaywel Machorowski, age 41 and Szmul Eyzenberg, age 32, came to inform about the death of Szayndla Baron at 8 pm on December 29, 1832. She was a six month old daughter of Maeir and Perla Baron, residents of Radoszyce. After confirming the death, this certificate was given and signed by witnesses in Yiddish: Zaywel Machorowski and Szmul Eyzenberg.

TRANSLATORS NOTE: Note the time span between the death in December of 1832 and the notification of it in the Radoszyce Registrar only in May of 1833.
