

Belle Rose Gunsberg

1910 - 1983

We are here today to unveil and to dedicate the headstone, which honors the memory of our beloved : wife, mother, grandmother, sister, relative and friend, Belle R. Gunsberg.

We are comforted, Lord God, in the knowledge that each of us, during her lifetime, were blessed by her love, companionship, and friendship. We are comforted, too, in the knowledge that that love remains everlasting, and our love and memories create the gift of immortality. Our familial bonds are stronger than death.

Emily and Robert, and my wonderful grandchildren, your mother and grandmother, by example, teaching, and love, sought to mold your characters and to instill in you a love for our people and traditions.

Through the years there will be many times when this headstone will be washed by our tears.

This headstone will forever testify to our love and devotion. This headstone marks more than Belle's final resting place. In truth, it designates a source of hope, a fountain of life, a fountain of soul inspiring thoughts. It designates that the chain of our generations is forged and its precious links bind us together.

Heavenly Father, we who are here this day, declare that this ground is sacred to the memory of our beloved and we declare that this headstone erected to the memory of Belle R. Gunsberg, Bayla Reisel bas Manuel Dovid, is now dedicated by our love.

Amen
